| TUTORIAL | SPECIFIC EXTRA SUPPLIES | DIE-CUTTING LIST |
|----------|---|---|
| #1 | You can create a die-cut layered flower in advance to be paired with the grosgrain ribbon leaves Melissa shows you how to create in her tutorial | No additional die-cutting required other than the flower mentioned |
| #2 | This tutorial can be completed with a single color of swiss dot ribbon, however Michelle used Spring Moss, Fine Linen, Classic Kraft, Soft stone, Melon Berry & Summer Sunrise swiss dot ribbons specifically. She also incorporates the Take Note stamp set predominantly. | No additional die-cutting required |
| #3 | You can use any bold/basic shape die negative for this tutorial, but Erin Specifically uses the Make a Wish dies (the three rounded square cake dies). The tutorial can be completed with a single color of twill tape, but Erin uses Sweet Blush, Autumn Rose & Scarlet Jewel. Erin also uses the bows & dies from Bells & Boughs, but they are not necessary. | No additional die-cutting required |
| #4 | Round felt flowers, button & twine. Ashley specifically uses Mat Stack 1 & Layerz Mat Stack 1 for her project, but any of the basic Mat Stack shapes will work. | -Notched Flower dies or circles hand cut into similar shape (1) large & (1) small, cut from felt (1) Mat Stack & Layerz Mat Stack set |
| #5 | If you desire, you can have a card completely created and be prepared to add a tied bow using Dawn's tutorial. | No additional die-cutting required |
| #6 | Betsy specifically uses Turning a New Leaf stamp set predominantly on her project, but it is certainly not necessary to complete the tutorial. | No additional die-cutting required |
